

Overview Bentley Earth electric driven clocks per 20/06/2014

Serial	Case Nr	Dial	Switch	Escape mechanism	Slave contact	Owner/source	Patents
134	Unknown		Roller		??	Mentioned in the Antiquarian Horology article of February 1972 and in the Horological Journal of 1912. May no longer exist	19044/10
136	High grade floor standing mahogany case	Roman, transparent glass dial and inset seconds dial; equipped with a brass cased	Cam	Top and bottom pawls driving the ??	??	Private collection in the UK	19044/10
139	Plain oak, bevelled glass front, large top moulding	Roman silvered skeletonised dial and inset seconds dial (seconds dial missing)	Roller switch		No	Sold at Tennants auctions in 2009 for 7000 pounds (excl commission costs)	19044/10
141	Floor standing round top case with glazed door.	Roman silvered skeletonised dial and inset seconds dial	Cam	Top and bottom pawls driving the escape wheel	No	Sold by Cheffins auctions 19/6/204; curved suport for the switch mechanism. .	19044/10
150	Mahogany with boxwood stringing, hanging model	Brass, Arabic numerals, full with inset seconds	Cam	Pivoted link	No	Sold at Christies in 2005, offered June 2008 by a dealer in the Netherlands. Now in a private collection in the Netherlands.	19044/10
154	High grade floor standing oak case, bevelled glass to the door, curved top moulding.	Roman silvered skeletonised dial and inset seconds dial	Cam	Pivoted link	No	Private collection in the Netherlands - Sold at an auction in 2005 for €8500 (inc).	19044/10
156	Plain oak, bevelled glass front, large top moulding		Roller switch	??	??	Sold at Fieldings in Stourbridge 19th Nov 2005 for £7000 (incl). Appeared on e-bay a couple of times and was withdrawn later. See electric group on Yahoo, message 5325 and related messages. It has the earlier type roller switch.	19044/10
159	??		Cam	??	??	Believed to be in a private collection in the UK	19044/10
165	Floor standing mahogany case, round bevelled glass to the door.	Roman silvered skeletonised dial and inset seconds dial	Cam	Pivoted link	??	Museum collection UK - reserves	19044/10
166	High grade oak case, bevelled glass to the door, curved top moulding.	Roman silvered dial with seconds hand	Cam	Pivoted link		Private collection in Australia	19044/10
169	Movement only					Bonhams 2005 for £1920 Bentley clock number 169 had been dismantled and packed in a number of boxes and cartons strewn at Dreweatts 2008 for £8100 (Incl.)
172	Floor standing on plinth plain oak, bevelled glass front, large top moulding with added curved pediment	Roman, skeleton with inset seconds dial	Cam	Pivoted link	No	Private collection in the UK - ex Birmingham Science Museum. Bought at Dreweatts 2008 for £8100 (Incl.)	19044/10
179	Full longcase, oak, round top, shallow broken-arch moulded corniche, floorstanding	Arabic full 11.5 inch silvered dial with subsidiary seconds	Cam	??	??	Sold at Sotheby's 19/6/03 for £6600 (restored and sold by Dave West clocks)	19044/10
184	High grade floor standing mahogany case with inlay, curved shallow top moulding.	Silvered over brass centre.	??	??	??	Sold at Sotheby's 12/12/01 for £9635 inc. The father of the vendor of this clock was a friend of P.A.Bentley and purchased the clock directly from Bentley who personally assisted with the installation of the clock.	19044/10
189	High grade floor standing mahogany case, bevelled glass.	Arabic silvered dial with inset seconds dial	Cam	Top and bottom pawls driving the escape wheel	No	Private collection in the Netherlands	19044/10, 8464/13
193	High grade full longcase mahogany, bevelled glass, curved top moulding. Similar to Nr 154 but case in mahogany. Has additional patent numbers stamped on	Silvered skeletonised dial and subsidiary seconds dial	Cam	Pivoted link	Yes	Museum collection UK - Appears in the Alan Shenton book and in article in Antiquarian Horology of Dec 1972	19044/10

202	High grade mahogany with inlay and panelled back floor standing on plinth.	Roman silvered skeleton with inset seconds dial.	Cam	Top and bottom pawls forwarding the escape wheel	??	Sold in the USA in 2007 for $13250. Had previously been sold - 18/12/1986	19044/10
203	Wall hanging, slate back - fixed coil, moving armature	Regulator, full, minutes dial and subsidiary seconds and hour dial	Cam	??	??	Museum collection UK - mentioned in the Alan Shenton article in Antiquarian Horology of Dec 1972	19044/10
242	High grade floor standing mahogany case, curved shallow top moulding.	Silvered dial over brass centre with inset seconds dial.	??	??	??	Sold at Sotheby's 18/12/1986. Similar to clock 184	19044/10

KNOWN CLOCKS FOR WHICH NO DATA IS HELD

???	Unknown	Private UK Collection
???	Unknown	Private UK Collection
???	A Bentley earth driven clock patent number 19044/10 was sold at Arthur Johnsons Nottingham on 11th May 2005. The hammer price was £4600 inc comission. It sold later that evening on the phone for considerably more	Current whereabouts unknown - may be one of the above
???	Unknown	Museum Collection UK